COUNTER-READY APPLICATION

Permit applications will only be accepted when a complete counter-ready application is received. Counter-ready applications are processed in chronological, received date order.

A counter-ready application includes all required documentation (see associated BUILDING TYPE CHECKLIST forms). Due to the uniqueness and complexity of some applications, we may require additional information. All applications may be submitted by email, mail or in person at one of the three RDCK offices: Creston, Nakusp or Nelson.

Applications within member Villages (New Denver, Silverton, Salmo, Slocan and Kaslo) may be submitted to the Village offices.

RDCK issuance of this building permit is not a representation or warrant that no covenants, easements, rights-of-way or other charges exist which could affect the proposed construction project.

⁷ The information required by this form and the documents you provide with it are collected to process an application for building within the RDCK. Information pertaining to this building permit, other than personal information, will be available for review by any member of the public. Personal information collected in this application is for the sole purpose of processing the application and will be managed in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Questions regarding the collection and use of your Personal Information may be directed to the Privacy Officer at 250-352-6665 or at foi@rdck.bc.ca

SECTION 4: OWNER'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT OF PERMIT CONDITIONS

As owner I acknowledge and understand the following RDCK Building Bylaw 2200, 2010 conditions of permit issuance:

1. Construction shall commence within six months after the date the permit was issued (Sections 13.3.1).
2. The work, once commenced, shall not be discontinued for a continuous period of more than twelve months, or in any event 12 months from the last inspection (Section 13.3.2).
3. The permit shall expire and the rights of the owner shall terminate in the event and at the time that either of the above conditions is not met or in any event thirty-six months after the date the permit was issued (Section 13.3.3).
4. An Owner may apply for, and the building official may issue a one-time renewal of a building permit, for a period of not more than one year. A renewal fee is payable as required under schedule 'A' of the RDCK Building Bylaw 2200, 2010 (Section 13.5).

IF THE PERMIT APPLIED FOR IS GRANTED, THE OWNER ACKNOWLEDGES THE FOLLOWING:

- To conform and be bound by the requirements of all relevant statutes, regulations, rules, orders in council and bylaws of the Province of British Columbia and the Regional District of Central Kootenay (the "Regional District"), including, but not limited to the current B.C. Building Code and the Regional District's Building Bylaw.
- The owner has the full and sole responsibility to carry out the work in respect of which the permit was issued in full compliance with the Building Code, the Building Bylaw, and other applicable enactments respecting safety.
- Neither the issuance of a permit under the Regional District's Building Bylaw, the review and acceptance of the design, drawings, plans or specifications, nor inspections made by the Building Official, shall constitute a representation or warranty that the Building Code or the Bylaw have been complied with, or the building, structure or the plumbing system meets any standard of materials or workmanship; No person shall rely on any of those acts as establishing compliance with the B.C. Building Code, the Building Bylaw or any standard of construction.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE AGREEMENT, RELEASE, INDEMNIFY AND UNDERSTAND IT.

^{8,9} Owners of land with more than one owner, except land owned in joint tenancy, shall each sign this application form acknowledging that they are aware of and support this building permit application. In such ownership circumstance, owners please contact the RDCK local office above. The department assistant will review the land title and create a unique separate page, listing non-joint tenancy ownership details (such as fractional ownership). Each owner shall then provide their signature and contact information to that specific document.
